VOL. IV. NO. 264. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6-7, 1898. PRICE, 5 CENTS

RACING AT LAKESIDE.

The track was muddy at Lakeside yesterday and the afternoon was cold and raw, but notwithstanding this a crowd of about 4,500 people were on hand.

The meeting of Imp and Macy was the attraction, and these two would be a drawing card on almost any track in the country.

The weights were quite different from what they were the last time these two cracks came together. Macy was picking up seven pounds and Imp had four pounds off. This the public thought made Imp the better of the two, and the half holiday people were down on her to a man.

In the opening betting it was "even money, take your pick." Imp, though, seemed to be the only one backed and her price was hurriedly cut to 4 to 5. Macy in the meantime receding to 6 to 5. Then there was a plunge on the latter, and going to the post the quotations were, Imp 9 to 10 and even money against Macy. To a perfect start Imp broke in front, but she did not seem to have her usual turn of speed, and passing stand Macy was on even terms with her. Around the first turn the pair raced like a team and when Imp could not get away from her fleet antagonist in the first three furlongs it was evident she had no chance to win. At the half mile ground Macy, with his mouth wide open, began to part company with the black filly, and the cry went up, "She is beaten. What do you suppose is the matter? She never showed such little speed as this before," and a hundred other remarks of this kind could be heard on all sides. The public never stopped to think that Macy is a horse of high class himself and that Imp was trying to concede him seven pounds.

On the far turn Macy opened up a winning gap of four lengths. Despite the fact that he was only galloping and Imp was hopelessly beaten, Ellis foolishly drew his whip and punished the already beaten filly mercilessly. She tried her best but could not gain an inch and Storm King coming strong beat her for the place.

O'Connell, who seems to have rounded to since Speirs lost him, won the initial seven furlong dash from Dunois, but only after a terrific drive the entire length of the stretch. O'Connell, who has the reputation of not being a game horse, showed that that imputation was incorrect. He stood the drive from the head of the stretch to the wire and hung on like a bulldog. Shortly after making the turn into the stretch Dunois hooked up with O'Connell and with both boys whipping and kicking for all they were worth, the pair finished almost on even terms. The winner was an even money favorite and Dunois was second choice at 11 to 5. O'Connell got off in front and led all the way. On the other hand Dunois broke fifth and met with some interference on the first turn. Another meeting between this pair on the same terms would be interesting.

Frank Bell finally met a combination of opposition and circumstances he could not beat. Everything in the way of conditions, racing luck, and track were against him, however, and this taken into consideration the colt ran his race. He was in the second event, which was at three-quarters—a little further than he cares to go, and was giving away weight to everything. The track was sticky and not to his liking. The colt also has a sore mouth and a rubber bit was used. This made it hard for Bless to hold him, and in all breakaways he ran far out. He opened at 7 to 5, was backed down a point, but after a couple of breakaways he went up to 8 to 5. Bless got away third and went right on to the front, and on the far turn was four lengths to the good. Coming into the stretch the colt began to get leg-weary, and Boney Boy, passing him like a flash, had everything his own way the last furlong, winning well in hand by three open lengths. Mr. Johnson, coming fast at the end, beat the tired Frank Bell for the place. Boney Boy was a 4 to 1 shot and well played. Guess Me, who has been showing great speed at Latonia, was nowhere and never prominent. She perhaps will do better later on.

There were eighteen starters in the third race and as good as 4 to 1 could be had against anything. Czarowitz, with Freeman up and well played, won easily from Aunt Mary. In the last sixteenth Freeman lost his cap and displayed a bald head. Rebo, who rode Aunt Mary, is an old man, some say over fifty years of age, and when he saw Freeman's bald head he looked at Patsy for a while and, with a smile, remarked: "There is still a chance for me."

There was a lot of speed in the fifth, a five furlong dash, but Montgomery's liking for the mud made him a warm favorite, and going to the post, 3 to 5 was his best price. He broke second, but stepping the first quarter in 24 seconds, was soon in front, where he stayed to the end, winning easily. Dave Waldo was second and the 60 to 1 chance, Walkenshaw, third. Montgomery's running the first quarter so fast in the mud created much gossip.

The ring had all it could do to handle the money in the last race and was hit hard over the win of Boanerges. The latter was the favorite and a ton of money was bet on him at 6 to 5 and even money. Topmast and Moncreith were also well played.

Evidently Colonel Clark thought there was "something doing" in the race, and for some reason, best known to himself, took "Cass" Sloan down from Topmast and substituted H. Martin. It did not matter who rode Topmast, for judging from the race, Boanerges was by far the best and after running in front all the way, he won off by himself. The chances are, had Sloan been left on Topmast the horse would have been second, but as it was, Moncreith came along with a rush and beat him a head for that position.

In the paddock before the races Mrs. Jimmie and Flying Bird were sold at auction. Both went very cheap, the former being knocked down to S. Bender for $375 and L. A. Thompson bought Flying Bird for $300.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It has been finally decided to reopen the old Kentucky racetrack on November 21 and race until December 1. The purses will be guaranteed by Messrs. Milton Young and Gus Straus, and C. F. McMeekin will act as secretary and treasurer. It is quite probable that Kentucky breeders will buy the old racetrack again.

The Melbourne Cup, a handicap, at two miles, one of the chief events on the racing calendar in Australia, was run Tuesday, Nov. 1, at the spring meeting of the Victoria Racing Club, and was won by Grafton, by Gozo—Industry. Wait a Bit, by Malma—Lucien, was second and Cocos was third.

J. F. Clark, racing judge at Newmarket, Eng., died on October 16 in his 83rd year. He had been many years a racing official of the English Jockey Club.

James McLaughlin is talking seriously of sending his entire stable to San Francisco to take part in the racing there this winter.

Time, 24, 50, 1:02, 1:15, 1:41.

Winner—B. c. by Leonatus—Countess Gisela. Start good. Won handily. Personne is good and outclassed the field. Prompto beat the gate and was lucky throughout but was tiring at the end. Inverary II. closed strongly under weak riding and is a useful horse that will do to watch closely. Dolore did not run to the mark. Throw this race out. The others are very common.

Scratched—Sandow, 99; Flandes, 105.

Overweights—Joe Levy, 3 pounds; Dolore, 3; Lomo, 2.

Personne, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Prompto, place, 4 to 5. Inverary II., show, 4 to 1.

Time, 24, 49, 1:01, 1:14.

Winner—Br. g. by Golden Garter—Ventura. Start fair. Won driving. Ventoro was best at the weights and lucky. He is a fast, game colt and a stayer. First Tenor was out off and unlucky. He closed in grand style in the run home and is plainly a good one. Olintus ran an honest race. Lime Water appears to be short, but showed speed for a half. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—Don't Tell, 100.

Overweights—Ventoro, 1 pound.

Ventoro, place, 4 to 5. Olintus, show, 1 to 2.

9448 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. 2-year-olds. Allowances. The California Maiden Stakes. Value $1,000.

Time, 24, 48, 1:01, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. f. by Midlothian—Free Love. Start fair. Won easing up. Midlove outclassed the field and could have won farther away. She is a stayer, weight carrier and extremely speedy. Anchored ran an honest race. Engage was short. Don't Tell and Hannah Reid belong to the useful selling plater division. Elizabeth R. and Jingle Jingle fell when running well and will bear watching. Master Lee appears to be of little or no account.

Scratched—Irelandais, 109; Glengaber, 110.

Anchored, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Don't Tell, show, 24 to 1.

9449 FOURTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. 3-year-old and upward. The Emeryville Handicap. Purse $500.

Time, 25, 49, 1:14, 1:40, 1:53.

Winner—Ch. h. by St. Blaise—Flavina. Start good. Won handily. Cromwell held the field safe from start to finish and was probably never better than he is now. Wheel of Fortune closed fast in the stretch and ran a good race. Grady ran an honest race and is very good now. Morellito was badly handled. He closed a great gap and was running very fast at the finish. San Venado also suffered from inefficient riding. Shasta Water ran her race. Mistral II was not ready.

Scratched—Buckwa, 110; Mamie G, 93.

Overweights—Cromwell, 1 pound; Wheel of Fortune, 2.

Cromwell, place, 4 to 5. Wheel of Fortune, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Grady, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Alarm—Hira. Start fair. Won without an effort. Yemen smothered his field and apparently never was better. Judge Stouffer ran to his best form and was lucky. Highland Ball should have been second, but Thorpe outrode Piggott at the end. Lost Girl got off badly and was poorly ridden. She is good and should be kept in mind. Howard and Defiant were out of their class.

Scratched—Bliss Rucker, 97; Major Cook, 99; Reina de Los Angeles, 99.

Overweights—Defiant, 3 pounds; Judge Stouffer, 2.

Judge Stouffer, place, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy.

Off at first break to a good start. Won in a long hard drive of two; third and fourth were driving just as hard. O'Connell ran an unusually game race. He stood a drive from the head of the stretch home. It was in the face of a heavy gale. It looked on the turn as though Dunois would win sure. He is known to be game and at that point was lapped on O'Connell. Martin rode for all he was worth but gained little on the latter through the stretch. Braw Lad finished strong. He seemed to labor in the going, but taking everything into consideration ran a good race. Debride seemed to be going easily under a strong pull on the far turn, but stopped when the pinch came. Midlo was never a dangerous factor.

Scratched—High Test, 100; Glenmoyne, 100; Silver Set, 105; Judge Steadman, 105; Milwaukee, 103.

Dunois, place, 4 to 5. Braw Lad, show, 2 to 5.

9458 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—Ch. g. by Blitzen—Sue B.

Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving hard. Boney Boy was the best in the going and as the race was run. He had a lot of speed and when he collared Frank Bell at the head of the stretch the latter stopped badly. Both Frank Bell and Boney Boy ran away an eighth of a mile at top speed in a false breakaway. This told on Frank Bell. The going was also against him with top weight. Mr. Johnson going about the same gait all the way passed Frank Bell in the last twenty yards. This colt likes a distance and also prefers a heavy track. Queen of Song can do better than this. So can Guess Me. The latter was short on speed. Fontainebleu had no chance from where he got off.

Scratched—Gold Fox, 98; Nora Ives, 95; Helen's Pet, 95; Martha Fox, 95.

Overweights—Plunkett, 3 pounds.

Boney Boy, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Mr. Johnson, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

9459 THIRD RACE—7-8 Mile. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—B. c. by Martenhurst—Mabel F.

Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving and staggering; third and fourth doing their best. Czarowitz was fortunate in getting away and always had clear sailing. He held the race safe all the way. Aunt Mary, who is a speedy sprinter, got away well and hung on longer than usual, although she was ready to lie down at the finish. Brother Fred did well under a weak ride. Warren Point had no excuses. He was away well, but did not run his race. The race was always between the first four, and resembled a holiday parade all the way.

Scratched—Summer Sea, 100; Low Hopper, 103; Briggs, 100; Bryan, 100.

Overweights—Redskin, 2 pounds; Idle Hour, 2; Czarowitz, 5.

Czarowitz, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Aunt Mary, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Brother Fred, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Br. c. by Hindoo—Alga.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won under a double pull; second handily after an early drive; third eased at the end. Macy was at his best and ran a corking good race. He was under restraint all the way and was pulled almost to a walk at the finish. Imp seemed dull. She ran nowhere near to her best form and was laboring before a half mile was traversed. The filly has either gone back or the going was against her. Storm King did well and passed Imp as though she was tied at the sixteenth post. Plantain finished where he belonged.

Overweights—Storm King, 2 pounds.

Storm King, place, 6 to 5.

9461 FIFTH RACE—5-8 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

*First series.

Winner—Ch. z. by Hanover—Blessing.

Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second well in hand; third and fourth driving hard. From a time standpoint this race is a phenomenal one. Montgomery took Dave Waldo's measure in the first half and after that had things his own way. Dave Waldo got the place as easily as Montgomery won. The race was strictly a two horse one. Walkenshaw finished with a rush. Billy Mason hung on longer than usual. Diggs did not seem to like the going. Aunt Bird showed some speed, but not much.

Scratched—Lady Juliet, 104; Ferroll, 99; Harry McCouch, 104.

Overweights—Bill Arnett, 2 pounds.

Dave Waldo, place, 2 to 5. Walkenshaw, show, 10 to 1.

9462 SIXTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—Ch. c. by Spendthrift—Llandrino.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third were driving to the limit. Boanerges had speed to loan. He raced all those behind him dizzy the first seven furlongs. The colt apparently wanted to stop at the eighth post, but came on again when called upon. He is in grand form now. Moncreith outgamed Topmast for the place. C Sloan was scheduled to ride the latter, but at the last moment H. Martin was substituted. The change made no difference whatever with the result. The race was always between the first three.

Scratched—Celtic Bard, 98; Gold Band, 100; Parole d'Or, 101; Red, 101; Pinar del Rio, 89; Mr. Easton, 95; Sutton, 101; Bridgeton, 98; Tranby, 100; Dr. Marks, 91; Nobilis, 102.

Time, 11, 23, 47, 1:01, 1:08.

Winner—Ch. f, by Irquois—Babe. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Takanassee is regaining form and showed a lot of speed today. Trillo was off badly, but for which he would probably have won. Midlight made up a lot of ground. Zanone's race should be thrown out. Tinge could not concede the weight. Blarneystone closed fast.

Scratched—Slasher, 99; Come Quick, 96; Orthos, 88; Athy, 91.

Overweights—Blarneystone, 1 pound; Hanlon, 1.

Takanassee, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Trillo, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Midlight, show, even.

9435 SECOND RACE—1 1-8 Miles. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.
